SHIRT WAIST AND PLAIN SKIRT COSTUME FROM HARPER'S BAZAR A new shirt waist is made with a pointed yeke and slightly bloused in front. The back is closely fitted with a yoke top, similar in form to that of the front. A touch of novelty is given sometimes to this style of waist by making the yokes double, with a contrasting space between the two, which, when carefully stitched, produces a very pretty effect. The fronts admit also of many variations, depending upon the kind of material used. The front, as well as the sleeve, often has a bias cut. It may be made also with bias or pointed tucks or pleats. The wool skirt is a practical model for every day wear, with a width at the foot of three and three-quarter yards. It has five gores, and may be pleated or gathered in the back, as preferred. The proper cut of this shirt waist and skirt can be obtained from the cut patterns furnished by Harper's Bazar, where it appears. The same model is also suitable for crash, duck or linen. Quantity of material for skirt, five and a quarter yards, forty-two inches wide, or six and a half yards, thirty-six inches wide. For shirt waist—
